I believe the minimum response is warranted. The less we say, the less he can try to hold us accountable for.

In accordance with Alsalam standard demobilization and final settlement procedures the attachment depicts the pay and other allowances in which you are entitled to receive. The final settlement provides the specific details; if you disagree with the settlement, please provide your substantiation No Later Than ?.

A check will be provided after your signature and return of the attached final settlement.

This should be sufficient to gain his attention, then:

Then if Mr. Foyil or Wayne wants to craft certain language that states failure to sign and return the attached document absolves Alsalam of any future financial liabilities. (if legal that is or as a bluff; either way).

Dan:

Thanks for looking. I will see Shaun this evening, so I will ask him. I will work with you and Wayne to come up with a letter to send him. Put some thought to it and let's talk.
